

Research your History Day project at MdHS! Potential topics highlighting the many examples of communication in history that happened in your own backyard!

Colonial and Revolutionary Era

- Native Americans Efforts to Preserve Land and Culture
- Protestant Revolution of 1689: Puritan and Catholic Conflict
- Anthony Stewart and Maryland's Tea Party Protest

Early National and Antebellum Era

- Creation of the Telegraph by Samuel Morse
- The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad
- Harriet Tubman and The Underground Railroad

Civil War and Reconstruction

- Spying during the Civil War
- Letters from the Battlefield: Communication during the Civil War
- African American male suffrage after the Civil War
- African American education following the Civil War

Gilded Age and Progressive Era

- The B&O Railroad Strike of 1877
- The Women's Suffrage Movement in Maryland
- The Oyster Wars

Civil Rights Movement/Vietnam War to the Modern Era

- Thurgood Marshall and the School Desegregation Efforts in Maryland's Public Schools
- NAACP: The Campaign to Integrate Ford's Theatre in Baltimore
- Activism and protest during the Vietnam War